Bauman L. Belden, Esq.,

Director, Amer. Numismatic Society,

156th St. & Broadway, New York.

Dear Sir:

Owing to a forthcoming extended trip to Egypt and Syria I have decided to dispose of my extensive collection of Egyptian and Greek Antiquities at greatly reduced prices at private sale in my Art Room at the above address in preference to selling at Auction.

The collection includes choice specimens of Greek and Roman glass with wonderful iridescence, beautiful examples of Rekka Pottery rare Necklaces of Egyptian Scarabs mounted with gold and of Egyptian Beads and Amulets of the finest blue glaze, Greek Coins in gold and silver, Greek Bronzes, Cylinders, Tablets and other rare Antiquities of recent importations and not before offered for sale.

The collection affords an unusual opportunity to secure at half price rare and beautiful antiques that can not be purchased at any price.

The bargain sale begins Feb. 11th and ends Feb. 28th; the sooner you call the better selection you will have; the price is plainly marked on each piece. Arabic gold Dinariis struck by Haroun El-Rashid are reduced Yours truly, to $8 each and Silver Tetradrachms of Alexander the Great to $1.50 each Azeez Khayat
